MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Meeting with Dr. Brzezinski, 6 August 1980

1. Briefing of Bush prior to China visit. I told Brzezinski Dick Allen had called me to ask for a briefing for Bush prior to his October 18 trip to China. Brzezinski saw no problem with this, but suggested that it be handled at the NIO level. It should also be confined to developments in general and our relationship with China. [redacted]

2. General briefings of the candidates. Brzezinski told me he had called Reagan and Bush to offer intelligence briefings. Bush was effusive, but said he would have to defer to Reagan for a decision. Reagan was cautious. I told Brzezinski that it was interesting that Dick Allen, with whom I talked today, had no knowledge of Brzezinski's conversation with Reagan. Brzezinski thought either the DCI or DDCI should be present at the briefings. Their purpose should be to inform the candidates about developments overseas [redacted]

5. I gave him the memo on the Soviets in Afghanistan. He asked about the paper on the Afghan resistance. I told him it would be to him by the first of next week. [redacted]
